ATTENDS STATE BOARD MEETING

Miss Lute Fraser, director at large of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women, attended a meeting of the board held Saturday and Sunday at Riverside. A meeting of the Los Angeles district board was held prior to the state gathering. Sessions were held at the Glenwood Mission Inn, where dinner was served Saturday evening to more than 200. Miss Emily Kneubuhl, executive secretary of the National Federation, was the speaker of the evening.

Miss Kneubuhl also spoke on Monday evening at a meeting of the Los Angeles clubs, held at the Victor Hugo.

Principal business transacted at the meeting of the state board had to do with the naming of the nominating committee, Miss Florence Stahl, chairman, which will select candidates for the offices for 1934-35.

The appointment of Mrs. Jane Humphries, of Los Angeles, as general chairman of arrangements for the state convention, to be held at the Hotel Biltmore, Los Angeles, May 19-20, was completed.

Withdrawal of Sacramento's bid for the 1934 convention which had been accepted at the San Jose convention, caused a revision of plans, and the convention was moved to Los Angeles to be handled by the four clubs of that city.

GUESTS FROM DOWNEY

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Showalter and daughter, Wilma, of Downey, visited Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Showalter's sister and brother, Miss Caroline Stroh and Police Sergeant John H. Stroh, and family.

EARLY LAWS OF CALIFORNIA

Laws of the state of California affecting women will be discussed at the next dinner meeting of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance, with Municipal Judge Charles T. Rippey as the guest speaker.

Judge Rippey expects to delve into ancient history for some of his examples of legislation, and no doubt will bring to light some curious and interesting facts regarding the early day attitude of lawmakers toward the so-called weaker sex.

Program arrangements are in the hands of the legislative committee, Mrs. Juliet M. Young, chairman. Dinner will be served at the Christian church parlors at 7:30 p. m.

R. N. A. 500 PARTY AT SCHROEDER HOME

Mrs. Mary Schroeder, 1655 Gramercy avenue, entertained members and friends of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, with a benefit 500 party at her home, Tuesday evening. Awards for high scores were captured by Mesdames Adeline Smith and Nell Munnie.

Prizes at games were awarded to Dona Marie Tolar, Billy Keefe and Bobby Sleeth. Included were Laura Mae Hyde, Florence Buchanan, Betty Elliot, Bernice Sherwin, Dona Marie Tolar, Vee Kasper, Gerald Templeton, Wayne Kaufmann, Billy Keefe, Bobby Sleeth and the host, Paul Kasper.
